

Energy Conservation: This film highlights tips on energy conservation in an informative, instructional, and entertaining manner.

1. The video highlights the goal of decreasing our individual energy usage on campus; what can you take away from the ideas presented and implement within your own life?
2. In which areas of your day-to-day life are you wasting energy? Are there areas where improvements can be made?
3. How can you get your roommates on board with conserving energy, if they are not conscious of conservation behaviors?
4. What are you currently doing to reduce your carbon footprint as related to energy usage?