

Recycle to Keep My Campus Clean: This clip highlights the importance of creating a commitment to recycling, while providing students with the necessary information to properly recycle within the residence halls.

1. Which facts presented in this video surprised you?
2. How can we create and promote a culture of recycling within our residence hall, suite, or apartment?
3. What areas of recycling at Clemson do you see that need improvement? How can we make this change come about?