

Recycling Program Piloted in Bracket & Sirrine Hall: A short film emphasizing the importance placed on recycling measures within the academic buildings at Clemson University.

1. What do you think the future of recycled materials looks like?
2. How inclined are you to buy products made from recycled materials? What if they are more expensive than a similar item that is not made from recycled materials?
3. How can we make improvements for recycling within our own communities?